Coffee Houses & Curtain Raisers!

First Reformed Church, 8 N. Church Street, Schenectady

Bach's Fifth Brandenburg Concerto, the Harpsichord Concerto by Manuel de Falla, and the jazz ballet La Revue de Cuisine by Czech composer Bohuslav Martin are all on this rich musical menu. Musicians of Ma'alwyck will be joined by guest artists - Karen Hosmer, oboe; Brett Wery, clarinet; and Krassimir Ivanov, bassoon. Guest conductor William Jon Gray, choral director of Chicago's acclaimed Music of the Baroque, also doubles as harpsichord soloist. We are especially delighted to feature the much-admired Puppet People, who will create a delightful visual presentation of La Revue de Cuisine.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Murder-Mystery Evening

Saturday, October 31, 6 PM, A Taste of Europe Restaurant, Cobleskill, NY

Can violent felons be cured by music? Psychiatrist-conductor Cornwall Mellish believes so. At a dinner party featuring a performance by an ensemble of misfits and maniacs, he is successfully presenting the proof of his research - until someone disproves Dr. Mellish's theory by murdering him. You're one of the psychiatrists in attendance, but you won't need your DSM-5. You'll be solving the mystery and identifying the killer by following the clues that point to a complicated series of relationships...and a thirst for revenge!

Celebrate Hallowe'en by unravelling this "Murder in C Major" with the misfits and maniacs of the Musicians of Ma'alwyck. Dine on the exquisite preparations of Chef Jeannette Balins at A Taste of Europe as you weave together the strands of the solution. Strictly limited to 40 guests. Ticket price includes dinner and murder-mystery. Wine & beer cash bar. $100 per person.

DINNER at Café Capriccio, Albany, NY

November 15, 2015 and April 24, 2015 following second concert

Musicians of Ma'alwyck pairs with master chef Jim Rua of Café Capriccio again, for a spectacular dinner following our Schuyler Mansion concerts. These private dinners, featuring Tuscan specialties, include appetizers, salads, entrees and dessert - truly a magnificent feast. (Tax and gratuity are included in the price; beverages are extra.) Space is strictly limited to 30 guests, and you must be a ticket holder for that afternoon's concert in order to attend. $37.50 per person.

A DECLARATION OF SENTIMENTS

March 2016

Commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Elizabeth Cady Stanton with music of American women composers: Marion Bauer, Amy Beach, Maude Powell, and a new work by Kathleen Ballantyne, based on Suffragette writings. Stanton's "The Declaration of Rights and Sentiments," 1848, modeled on the American Declaration of Independence, anchored the movement. Musicians of Ma'alwyck will join the Siena College Choirs and the Ten Broeck Mansion for a unique series of events celebrating the Women's Suffrage Movement. Visit www.musiciansofmaalwyck.org later this fall for details.

A City of Immigrants

Sunday, April 3, 4 PM, Troy Music Hall, Troy, NY

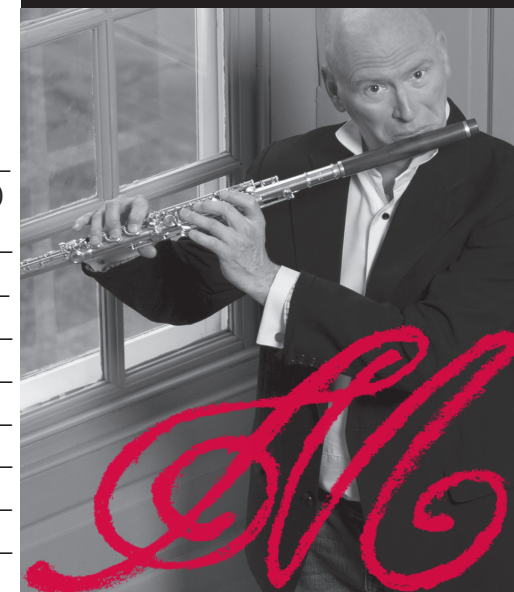

Musicians of Ma'alwyck joins Albany Pro Musica, the Capital District Youth Chorale, and Saratoga Springs Nacre Dance in a musical homage to the rich cultural heritage of the Capital Region. Albany's nickname "City of Immigrants" inspired this unique concert, featuring music from the Dutch, German, English, Italian, Polish, African-American, Asian, Irish, Jewish, and Hispanic cultures that have influenced our region. Ticket information at albanypromusica.org.

Dear Friends...

Join Musicians of Ma'alwyck for a new season of great performances! It will be another year of innovative programs with stellar guest artists and collaborators. Whether you are a regular chamber music concert-goer or a first-timer, you will love these one-of-a-kind concerts in stunning historic settings. From haunting music (and some scary surprises) marking Hallowe'en to quirky 20th century jazz ballet music telling a tale of culinary romance, you'll find it in our 2015-16 schedule.

Five subscription concerts, four free previews, a murder-mystery fund raiser, special musical collaborations (one bailing the Women's Suffrage movement and another commemorating the city of Albany through the musical legacy of its immigrants) and other unique musical events describe our 2015-2016 season. This is one year you won't want to miss!

Sincerely,

Ann-Marie Barker Schwartz
