Aleda The Flight of the Suffbird Women

An opera about bravery and the women's suffrage movement

Commissioned by Musicians of Ma'alwyck for the 100th anniversary of the passing of the right to vote for women in New York State, this opera tells the story of a daring plan to "bomb" Woodrow Wilson's presidential yacht with Votes for Women pamphlets in 1916. Though the plan ultimately failed, the story is a wonderful one and describes the pluck of aviatrix Leda Richberg Hornsby, one of the first American female pilots.

Conducted by Timothy Reno

Music and libretto by Max Caplan

"New York Women: Singing for Suffrage. The American Women's Suffrage Movement in New York State in Song & Story."

Produced, directed and compiled by Andy Spence. Featuring Old Songs, Inc.

The opera will be paired with a one act play about Suffrage titled "The Burden of the Ballot" written and directed by Krysta Dennis.

Look for our exciting announcement in January for up-to-date information on this special performance!
